

I do believe in sharing resources among the deaf communities for using VRS services, no matter what compaines owns the video models. Its the matter of equal accessability for every deaf person that uses the Videophone.